

Tolis Dimopoulos | Managing Member

Tolis Dimopoulos is the managing member and founder of Sophos Law Firm. Tolis serves as outside general counsel to startups and high growth companies in the biotechnology, information technology, Web services, and finance sectors. Tolis has represented private, public and non-profit clients in various commercial transactions including private placements and debt offerings, acquisitions, and licensing and distribution deals. He also has extensive knowledge of investment management, corporate governance, and employment and compensation rules and regulations.

MEMBERSHIPS

- American Bar Association, Business Law Section
- King County Bar Association, Business Law Section

ILLUSTRATIVE MATTERS

- Represented large consulting services and technology firm in outbound intellectual property license transactions
- Company counsel to investment management firm in multi-million stock sale to private equity investors
- Represented technology copyright holder in pre-litigation infringement dispute involving ownership rights to social networking Website
- Devised human tissue transfer protections and Privacy Rule controls in compliance with federal Office of Human Research Protections (OHRP) rules for leading West Coast medical research organization
- Designed worldwide contract management processes in compliance with Sarbanes-Oxley for major e-commerce site
- Represented investment group in private placement with startup technology firm

REPRESENTATIVE CLIENTS

- Allen Institute for Brain Science
- Avanade
- Expedia
- Wamu

Voice/Text: 206.356.3113
Fax: 206.577.5032

Tolis@SophosLaw.com

Sophos Law Firm, PLLC
1037 N.E. 65th Street
Suite 211
Seattle, Washington 98115

EDUCATION

- George Washington University, MBA
- University of Richmond School of Law, JD
- Purdue University, BS, Aerospace Engineering
- Leadership Tomorrow

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Washington
- District of Columbia
- Virginia