

Michelle A. Rubesch, CFA, CAIA

Michelle Rubesch is Chief Investment Officer and Equity Strategist for Perkins Coie Capital Management (PCCM). PCCM is a Registered Investment Advisor owned by the law firm Perkins Coie LLP, which Michelle joined in April 2002 to help launch the new trust and investment services division serving clients of the law firm. As a member of the firm's Investment Policy Committee, Michelle assists in the development of PCCM's investment strategy and the establishment of the firm's view of the economy, markets and global issues. Michelle has managed the firm's Core Equity investment strategy since its inception in July 2002, she is responsible for manager selection and performance reporting. She manages individual portfolios for high-net-worth individuals, non-profit organizations and foundations.

Michelle has earned the Chartered Financial Analyst and the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst designation, and she has 16 years of professional experience in investment management. She has extensive experience in advising clients in the development of investment policies, portfolio management, manager selection, and security analysis. Prior to joining Perkins Coie, she served as Vice President and Senior Portfolio Manager at The Harris and as Vice President and Portfolio Manager at Wells Fargo Private Asset Management.

Michelle holds an undergraduate degree in Economics from Whitman College and serves on the Board of Overseers, the Budget Committee, and the Planned Giving Committee for the college. She is actively involved in several nonprofits including Passages Northwest, Deep Roots and the Investment Committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Olympia. Michelle is a member and a past president of the CFA Society of Seattle, as well as a member of CFA Institute and the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association.